CamerinKids

Indhu Sudhakaran, S6-31

Department of Computer Applications

Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Technology, Kottayam

Camerinkids is a user-friendly web-based learning platform that offers computer programming courses to the kids and lets them explore logical skills and create websites. It offers self-paced online courses for children to learn coding at home. With the help of the Camerinkids, kids can easily conquer the basics of Game development,programming and creating websites.It provides everything needed to learn computer programming in a fun way.The courses are user-friendly and inbuilt so children can quickly get involved in them without needing an opening course or previous coding background.Admin module deals with Tutor Details, Minor Programmer confirmation, Master Tutor Registration, Notifications, Email, Graphical views and Minor details.The Master Tutor Module deals with Tutor Registration, Tutor confirmation, Minor Programmer detail, Progress List, Tutor Detail, Course Detail, Register Course,Email and Graphical views.